John R. Walsh, Chicago's Defaulting Banker, Convicted of Appropriating Funds Committed to His Care.

Chicago, Jan. 20.—John R. Walsh, the late president of the now defunct Chicago National Bank, was found guilty Saturday of misappropriating the funds of the institution. The penalty for this crime is imprisonment for not less than five years without the option of a fine.

GOVERNMENT IS GRATIFIED

At the Fact that It has Been Able to Convict a Rich Criminal

Chicago, Jan. 20.—William B. Ridgely, United States comptroller, referring to the Walsh trial, said the government is well pleased with the result. "At last one of this kind of bankers has been found guilty," he said. "The result will have a very beneficial effect on the entire country and especially the banking practice of the entire country. We are all very sorry for Mr. Walsh, but cannot be moved by such considerations."

He said that the trial was uniformly fair and he did not believe there would be found any grounds for a new trial to be taken seriously by the court.

SHADOWING OUR SHIPS

A Russian Naval Officer Follows Our Fleet from Port to Port in Order to Pick up Points

St. Petersburg, Jan. 20.—The importance attached to the cruise of the American fleet to the Pacific is shown by the fact that Commander Alexis Diatchkoff of the Russian navy is following the ships from port to port as best he can. It is said here he adopted this course only after repeated requests for permission to join the fleet had been refused. The admiralty desired the officer to accompany the fleet for the purpose of learning lessons to be brought out during the voyage. It is said here personal application was made to Secretary Metcalfe at Washington by the commander, but when this was refused he was ordered to follow the fleet as best he could.

CRIMINALS WERE CREMATED

Alive in their Cells in a Georgia Jail. Seems to be a case of Incendiarism

Valdosta, Ga., Jan. 20.—From persons who came here from Statesville, in Echols county, today, it is learned that the Echols county jail was burned Saturday night and two negroes, both accused of murder, were roasted alive.

The fire occurred about 1 o'clock at night and nothing was known of it until the noise of the negroes beating upon their cells and their shrieks were heard. One of the negroes, Ed Rainey, was charged with shooting Westberry in a riot between some white men and hands on the tramroad of W. L. Perkins & Co., some time ago. The other negro, Andrew, was accused of killing young Peterson in a blind tiger near Tarver last spring. He escaped and was captured in South Carolina some time ago. It was said that both negroes had a good showing of being cleared, and it is believed that the friends of the two young white men fired the jail and left the negroes to their fate.

THE "BANKER-POET" DEAD

New York, Jan. 20.—Edmund Clarence Stedman, widely known as the "banker-poet," died Saturday night at his home in this city from a sudden attack of heart failure.

COULDN'T CONTROL HIS GRIEF

New York, Jan. 20.—Walter C. Rollins, who several years ago owned a famous string of horses which won many stakes at meetings in all parts of the country, killed himself at his home in the Bronx yesterday by shooting. Grief over the death of his wife, which occurred five months ago, is believed to be the cause of his act.

LYNCHED BY SCHOOLBOYS

Untimely End of a Big Mastiff who Was Not Careful who he Bit

Niles, Ohio, Jan. 20.—Seven school-boys lynched a big English mastiff here Saturday. The dog had bitten one of them sometime Saturday morning, and to get revenge they armed themselves with three air rifles, two revolvers, a small repeating rifle and a rope. The dog was captured by the youths and taken about a mile from the city limits, where he was hanged to a tree and his dangling body riddled with lead.
